

Herald Columnist in Hospital

Jack Webb, of 145 Calle de Andaluca, a correspondent for the HERALD for more than five years, has been transferred to the California Rehabilitation Center, 1815 Ocean Front, Santa Monica, for therapy following confinement at County General Hospital last week with polio. Webb, who is employed by the Los Angeles Examiner as a retail advertising executive, had been ill only a short time before he was taken to County Hospital with a polio diagnosis.

Paralysis had been evident in his right arm and left leg, his wife, Mary, said yesterday. She reports, however, that movement has been reported in both

SPORTSMEN'S CLUB SETS NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY

Louis Regan, New Year's Eve dance chairman for the Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen's Club, has announced his staff of co-chairmen for the gala celebration at the Hollywood Riviera Club.

According to President Robert C. Surber, Don Mason will be in charge of decorations; Ray Hameda will plan the buffet; Al Koester will direct the house committee, and Regan will handle tickets. Surber will take charge of advertising the event.

Members of the Sportsmen's Club met at the clubhouse this week to put finishing touches on their plans also for the All-Scout Christmas tree lot. Jim Greer is general chairman of this fund-raising event to benefit Riviera Scout troops.

Other chairmen making reports last included Lamar Bonnette, who made an appeal for help in setting up the tree lot tomorrow. Boy Scouts also will assist in this project.

Two Brownie Troops Invested, Troop 199 Adds Birthday Party

By MARY WEBB
FR 5-3051

Two Riviera Brownie troops held their investitures this week. Troop 199 combined their first birthday party with investiture of new Brownie, Lynette Forsberg. The "Fairy Pool" featured in the service was beautifully decorated with camellias.

Sidonie Steel, who recently moved to the Riviera, was welcomed into the troop.

One-year membership pendants were presented to Rhonda Beckman, Patty Eckhart, Barbara Hennings, Ann Lightfoot, Sharon McBurney, Patti Montooth, Jerilyn Noth, Kathy Ogborn, Mary Helen Roberts, and Suzanne Gamble.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, a beautiful birthday cake, presented by Mrs. John W. Steel, was served.

The party was held at the home of the troop leader, Mrs. J. M. Ogborn, 440 Via Los Miradores, Thursday morning. She was assisted by her co-leader, Mrs. Adolph Noth. Mrs. George McBurney decorated the "Fairy Pool."

Troop 201 held its investiture service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Corazza, 547 Calle Mayor, Wednesday evening.

Three girls, Connie Delio, Pamela Bartelt, and Virginia Corazza, were invested by their leader, Mrs. J. M. Stuart, assisted by her co-leader, Mrs. A. L. Gabriel.

The service opened with the presentation of the flag by the color guard, composed of Gail Stuart, sergeant-at-arms; Anita Terry, flag-bearer; Julie Stern and Charlene Winkelman.

The feature of the program was "The Brownie Story" presented as a play by six members of the troop. The part of Mary was played by Kirm Hatch; Tommy, Dotsy Booth; Father, Michelle Sullivan; Grandmother, Paula Marat; the Old Owl, Sherry Koudela; and the Story Teller, Judy Cobabe. The green decked rustic "Fairy Pool" served as a setting for the play as well as the investiture ceremony.

Over 40 guests, families and friends, were received by Brownie hostess, Melinda MacElroy.

At the close of the program, coffee, punch and cookies were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. T. R. Corazza and Mrs. David Sokoloff.

The Sportsmen's Club is all set to open up its Christmas Tree lot at Ave. I and Elena next Saturday. President Robert Server reports. And, special ranged, Server said.
